

30 DAYS OF GOOD DEEDS

Ramadan is a month of multiplication of rewards, and the Prophet ﷺ encouraged us in many ahadith to do good deeds. Let's make a jar of good deeds to ensure that we do at least one good deed every day in Ramadan!

YOU'LL NEED:

- An empty Jar
- A pair of scissors
- Glue and cello/clear tape
- Colors, buttons, ribbon, beads and other accessories
- A small rectangular sheet of paper to use as label

HOW TO:

- Get an empty jar (consider repurposing)
- Decorate your jar by glueing buttons, and beads around the top and bottom of the jar (leave some empty space in the middle)
- Label your sheet of paper "Ramadan jar of good deeds"
- Glue or Tape the label right in the middle of the jar
- Print your good deeds sheets, cut the squares of good deeds carefully and fill up your jar with the cut pieces
- Pick one good deed daily and color in your square on your tracking sheet when you've completed the deed of the day
- Remember to renew your intentions daily in hope of lots of reward from Allah!

DAYS OF GOOD DEEDS

Clear the plates after Iftar

Smile at everyone

Read one page of Qur'aan

Give some money in charity

Call a relative to say Salaam

Massage mom's feet

Give someone a date for Iftaar

Learn a new dua

Make du'aa for the Ummah

Learn a new hadith

Say the Istighfaar 100 times

Recite Ayatul Kursiy after each Salaah

Recite the Qur'aan in a beautiful voice

Give someone a compliment

Send salawaat upon the Prophet ﷺ

Pray one Sunnah Salaah

Thank Allah for 5 things

Say only good things

Water a plant

Pray Salaatud Duha

Make du'aa for a friend

Fast for at least 2 hours

Write an appreciation letter to dad

Pick up the trash somewhere

Make du'aa for your parents

Take an afternoon nap

Wash the dishes without being asked

Dont waste water during Wudu'

Make Eid cards for your loved ones

Clean a room in the house
